

Students are unable to gain award points for football games due to having late classes. This creates an extreme disadvantage in accessing game attendance opportunities.